

Preface

The cover of this book is entitled Seraphim Awakening, a great work of art by A. Andrew Gonzalez. Seraphim is a Hebrew word meaning the burning; consuming with fire; eminence; glorious. It conveys ideas of purity or the ability of exalted ideas to cleanse the dross. The appropriateness of this divine masterpiece strikes a cord that is innately profound. It is the fire of purification that allows the Angelic Human to bring into manifestation those attributes lying dormant within the twisted strands of the DNA, etherically and physically. This is the “burning”, “consuming with fire” and, indeed, it is glorious. Angelic wings signify that the angelic realm is free from limitation. Seraphim are often shown with six wings. The symbolism is thought to mean that the burning purification goes through six areas of consciousness in the body. These areas are the five senses and the sixth sense—intuition. Often Seraphim have hidden faces connoting that the action is hidden and the wings tell us that the action is swift and divine.

Much like the Christed, anointed consciousness, states of mind are purified by realization of divine sanctity in word and thought. Pureness of heart and mind rejuvenates the body. Strength in the physical is necessary to carry the essential energy that is the word and thought of Cosmic Consciousness. Hence, it is important to attend to the health of the body as well as the Spirit.

The Seraphim working in conjunction with the soul pattern assists the burning fire to purify all that remains of the denseness and dross that would prohibit entering into the next stage of awareness. My connection with this realm assists in the beckoning that is felt with this Call and will allow the crystalline energy that perpetuates the Light within the continuum to permeate those who feel drawn to heed it. The force of this living intelligence that lies within the individuated soul fabric feels now the urging that is summoning each forward.

Planet earth is experiencing quantum evolutionary changes and all inhabitants of this planetary sphere are entangled within the framework of those frequencies. Alignment with the Light conversion is of paramount importance. This Call asks each to heed that which is being heard and felt. Know that the moment of awakening is Now, as it has always been. The Violet Flame of Transmutation that burns within the cells of my being, living within my Christed Heart, is available to everyone assisting in the process of purifying all bodies in the ever-changing flow of creative consciousness. This Flame holds within itself the patterning of the original blueprint of creation and thus aligns individuated harmonic frequencies.

When attention is turned away from the denser forms of manifestation with which the body often aligns, those forms die a natural death from lack of attention (energy). Once again the attribute of the anointed, cosmic man comes to conscious awareness in those who would carry forth their commissions as Angelic Humans. In that awareness, the frequency that is the vibration of material denseness is raised in purity to divine consciousness and life takes on a totally different meaning and mission.

“A human being is a part of the whole, called by us “Universe,” a part limited in time and space. He experiences himself, his thoughts and feelings as something separated from the rest—a kind of optical delusion of his consciousness. This delusion is a kind of prison for us, restricting us to our personal desires and to affection for a few persons nearest to us. Our task must be to free ourselves from this prison by widening our circle of compassion to embrace all living creatures and the whole of nature in its beauty. Nobody is able to achieve this completely, but the striving for such achievement is in itself a part of the liberation and a foundation for inner security.”

—Albert Einstein, quoted in
H Eves Mathematical Circles Adieu
(Boston 1977).

This book is a workbook. It is intended to be used to assist in creating a foundation upon which sits the Consciousness of the Christos. The text explains how I became intimate with the “idea” of the Angelic Human while also elucidating the method in which one who considers him or herself such may awaken the coding within the subtle as well as physical bodies.

This manual may be considered a significant step toward Mastery of not only the earthly dimensions but also an integrating force in the implementation of living multi-dimensionally in the cosmos. Undertaking this calling places the Angelic Human in a specific role in this realm. It is the epitome of the life that was voiced by the Christed One, Jesus, when he spoke of being in the world, yet not of it. It requires being separate while existing in total Union.

All that is encompassed within these pages is a product of my own experience. There is nothing herein that I would ask the reader to do that I have not already done. It is up to each individual to surrender to the Spirit of the Call and then bring forth the original being through fresh words and actions. For in truth, you cannot continually live yesterday or tomorrow. The only thought form that blocks the way to the bridge of Divine Consciousness is what you are creating right now. The path is clear and the road is omnidirectional. It is impossible to lose the way.
